

Taking care of a very ill loved ones while raising a family requires 24 hr. care. When the opportunity arises that provides individuals with a few hours of sleep or free time do they have to rush to answer the phone thinking it's their children only to hear a telemarketer? As Americans we have the right to privacy in our home.